TO THE POLLS!

Vote early, and see that your neighbor votes. Not a vote should be lost. Let the Whigs in the city do their duty their whole duty. They should never be backward in devoting one day to their country. Remember that one vote may save the State from another year of Loco foco misrule.

The Whigs of the country expect that every man will discharge his duty this day at the Polls. A LOVO FULL and strong PULL, and a PULL ALTOGETHER, and the rotten tower of Loco-focism will be shaken, if not prostrated.

BANGOR LUMBER. The amount of Lumber surveyed in this city from the 1st to the 31st day of August inclusive, is 17,856,937 feet, and from April 20, 1839 to Aug 31, the Lumber surveyed amounts to 62,145,911 feet.

Our Loco Foco friends are fond of quoting from the sayings and writings of Jefferson, who held up, by their writers, as a perfect political model. Now we like many of the sayings and writings of this same statesman. We would instance the following which we do not recollect in any of their journals, and which possibly, our neighbor of the Democrat will think us for laying again before the public. It appears particularly applicable at the present time. The sentiment is as follows: "MEN HOLDING OFFICE UNDER THE EXECUTIVE, FOUND INTERFERING IN POLITICS SHOULD BE IMMEDIATELY DISMISSED FROM OFFICE."

The above may, with great propriety, be coupled with the following admirable sentiment of Chief Justice Marshall, who, being invited to be present at a public dinner, declined, for the reason that, in his opinion, "No Judicial Officer should ever allow his self to take any part in politics."

Vermont. We have returns from 18 towns in Vermont, and in these towns Jennison's majority is 1100, last year his majority in the same towns was 1100.

Massachusetts. At Augusta, Geo. is subduing the new set of deaths of the prevailing fever. There were no deaths on the 30th ult., and the cases reported were generally of a mild character.

Maryland. The Congressional election in Maryland (taken place on the 1st Wednesday in October, in Maryland) — the 4th and 5th of Oct., Mr. Taylor the only M. D. which was not a lady elected there. Cong. N. 10.

FROM SUMATRA. The barque Moscow, Capt Low, arrived at Boston on Thursday, from Sumatra, reports that the captain of a French barque was murdered at Mouk, by the natives, about the 1st of May. The boat's crew swam to the vessel, and the mate got underweigh immediately, and left the place.

We have received a copy of the Report of an Exploration and Survey of the Territory on the Aroostook river, during the spring and autumn of 1838. It contains much interesting and valuable information. The facts he furnishes in regard to the nature and capacities of the Aroostook country will be of value to the community, and we intend to treat our readers with copious extracts in a few days. In the concluding paragraph of his report, he gives the following advice:

"Should you advise me to go to the Aroostook?" is a question often put. Before answering it, I would use the characteristic privilege of asking who are you?

If you are already well situated, have a good farm, live in a pleasant neighborhood, and are blessed with the common goods and chattels necessary for the well being and happiness of your family, stay where you are. Go neither east nor west. Are you a man of feeble health, with little capital, unable to undergo the severe toils of subduing the forest, and unable to hire? It would not be advisable for you to go there. Are you idle, lazy, shiftless and vicious? Go not thither. Better go where (if you cannot reform) slave houses and prisons are more abundant to administer to your necessities, or to ensure your safe keeping. Are you in straitened circumstances, but in good health, with a robust and hardy family of children to assist you? Go to the Aroostook. If possible, take a supply of provisions with you to last till you can get a crop. Select a good lot of land, be prudent and industrious, and in three years you can look around upon your productive acres and your well filled garner with satisfaction. Are you a young man just starting in life, but with no capital? Take a strong arm, good courage and a narrow axe? Go to the Aroostook. Attend assiduously and carefully to your business. Select a suitable lot for your purpose, and with the common blessings of Providence, you will in a few years, find yourself an independent freeholder, with a farm of your own subduing, and with a capital of your own creating.

For the Whig & Courier

Messrs. EDWARDS & SMITH. I wish to inquire through the columns of your paper, if our City Government cannot devise some method to enforce a correct measurement of wood and bark. In Portland, if a purchaser is dissatisfied with the measure of a load of wood, he can have it corded up, re-surveyed, and any deficiency there may be, the surveyor will first survey it, and by whose survey it was purchased, is compelled to make up the deficiency, or pay the difference.

During my residence in this city, I have ever been perfectly satisfied when I can get six feet for a cord. But I do not like the principle of surveys of wood and bark, cheating the poor people out of one half their hard earnings for the sake of monopolizing the survey business. I have now a load of wood purchased a few days since, which can be seen by any one who chooses to take the trouble to go and examine it from a Mr. Griffin, surveyed by Mr. NEWELL BRAN, who gave a certificate for one cord of wood which was the amount paid for by me, when at the same time, there was not over five feet of wood in the load. If there can be no way to make surveys accountable, I would caution the public to be careful who surveys their wood. But I hope the City Government will speedily take such measures as will prevent fraud and give buyers their due.

Bangor, Sept. 7th

"LOOK WHERE YOU ARE GOING"

This was a remark heard yesterday, as we passed along Carriage street, addressed by a mother to a beautiful child about five years of age. The little fellow had his hands full of eggs and his head full of wonder. He was looking at all the glittering and attractive articles in the numerous show windows, and with his eyes devouring their beauties. He didn't see the streets nor the persons passing nor his own soul was filled with something else besides the mere idea of how or where he was walking. Without his mother he would certainly have been run over by the whirling dervish, or trodden down in the carol crowd, as it may be ran some risk, as his mother's "look where you are going" seemed to indicate.

We were much interested not only in the child but the mother, who was a noble looking creature, with large black eyes, a high forehead and a cheek quite ruddy for this climate, and a most bewitching form. Her carriage was graceful, and she stepped as we imagine Homer described when served the gods at their banquet. We lost sight of her very soon, however, but her remarks, "Look where you are going," have been ringing in our ears ever since. Could it have been on account of her voice? We are charmed by its music, but have listened to tones far sweeter. We know not what there was about that single phrase to attract us, save the deep philosophy which may be drawn from it, and the practical morality that may be induced.

"Look where you are going." An admonition how universal in application! how simple in practice! how important in result! There is no situation in life so low that it cannot be improved by it, nor one so high that it may earn it with impunity. The child needed it to keep him out of the street where danger was rife, the monarch on the throne requires it to preserve the integrity of his councils when the popular will is threatening.

Reader, if you are a merchant, which business is exciting prices brisk and the market active when farmers are confident and speculators ready when society is hidden by the cloak of morals and insolvency lurks under silk ropes, remember and "look where you are going," follow not this man because he promises you a fortune, trust not that one because he wears a saintly face, confide not in a third because he agrees with you in opinion. "Look where you are going," and take care of the main chance.

If a young man, and pleasure, beckoning with her rosy hand, invites you to her luxurious retreat, take no steps towards those enticing groves where "you look where you're going." The late table and the dice box, dishonesty to your employers, a ruined reputation, and perhaps an ignominious death, may be the consequence of a refusal to "look where you're going."

If the world followed this simple advice, our jails would be tenanted and our gibbets of no use. If you intend marry, if you think your happiness will be increased and your interest advanced by matrimony, be sure and "look where you're going." Join yourself in union with no woman who is selfish, for she will sacrifice you with no one who is fickle, for she will become estranged, have naught to do with a proud one, for she will despise you not an extravagant one, for she will ruin you. Leave a coquette to the fools that flutter around her, let her own fireside accommodate a scold, and flee from a woman who loves standstill as you would fly from the evil one. "Look where you're going" would sum it up.

Young ladies, when you are surrounded by dashing men, when the tones of love and the words of compliment float on together when you are excited by the movement of the whirling waltz, melted by the tenderness of the mellow music, arrest yourselves in that gay atmosphere of delight, and "look where you are going." What a daring land is pressing your delicate treasures are seized by him you fancy loves you, when the midnight invites to trusting, and the stars seem but to breathe out innocence, listen with caution to the words you hear gaze into your heart unshrinkingly, and "look where you're going." [N. G. Times]

THE STEP-MOTHER

A CHINESE TALE

In the reign of Sweng Yang, the guards of a castle found a man lying in a field, who appeared but recently to have been murdered. At a little distance they found two brothers whom they took into custody as the probable murderers. As however, the deceased had but one wound, which consequently gave rise to the surmise of but one perpetrator, the question arose, which of the two had done the deed? Neither of the brothers would accuse the other, each of them declaring that he, and not his brother was the assassin. The case was brought before the king.

"To grant life to both," said the king, would be to show mercy to one murderer, to have both executed, where only one can be guilty, would be cruel and unjust, the law. Well then, let the mother of the slain man be called, and let her opinion decide the fate for she knows her children best."

So said, and the mother was informed of the king's command. And said the poor woman, bursting into a flood of tears, "Oh! I am then compelled to choose between the eldest and the youngest. The king expressed great surprise that the mother should not have chosen the youngest, for the youngest children are generally cherished

the most by mothers.

"Yes, said she, whose life I now save, is not the youngest, but my own body, which I have been nursing since my first marriage. I have been his mother, and his father always loved him as my own son, and until now, I have always kept my word. I should now break my promise, were I, from fraternal tenderness, to save the life of my youngest son to the detriment of the other. I feel what this sacrifice costs my heart."

Cries and sobs here choked her utterance. The king pardoned them both.

YANKEE IN FRANCE. Mr. Wellington, editor of the Charleston Courier, in South Carolina, is traveling in France with his family. A daughter of Mr. W. has just been married in Paris to the son of one of the Admirals in the British Navy. This event we notice merely to speak of the success of a Yankee boy, where intelligence is combined with industry and energy of character. Mr. Wellington is a native of West Cambridge, near Boston. His parents are worthy and respectable people, and if we mistake not, his father is or was a farmer, and for a long series of years has grown vegetable for Boston market.

A long while since, with a dickey in his hat and a few pennies in his pocket, young Wellington was at South. After passing through various gradations, from entire obscurity he became distinguished as one of the most able and dignified editors in the Union. Distinction and wealth followed, and now he is traveling abroad with his family, and his daughter has just been connected by marriage with the son of a British Admiral. The mutations of rank and fortune in this country are curious, sometimes when diligently traced out. Northampton Courier.

PENOBSCOT AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY'S

EXHIBITION OF MANUFACTURES, CATTLE, SHOW AND PLOUGHING MATCH, will be held on at HAW'S CORNER IN EXETER on WEDNESDAY and THURSDAY, the 25th and 26th of September instant.

GENTLEMEN MECHANICS AND FARMERS. When we cast our eyes over the pages of history, and there learn, that from the time it became a title of the land, to the present moment, that every nation of which we have any history, has risen in power and advanced in civilization, in a degree almost precisely corresponding to their attention to Agriculture and the Mechanic Arts, the importance of an attention to those pursuits, is brought home to our minds with irresistible force, and when we reflect, that from the day when Rome was in her glory, to the present, that men of science have made Agriculture and the Mechanic Arts their study; and that those nations and neighboring hands who have availed themselves of the benefit of their discoveries, have always far outstripped those who have gone along in the old way, we cannot avoid seeing the importance of a thorough dissemination of all useful knowledge upon those subjects.

The object of Agricultural Societies is the dissemination of such information as shall tend to place Agriculture and the Arts in the position their importance demands. And shall it be said, that the citizens of Kennebec either revere or neglect, to so all in their power, to encourage those pursuits which are the very foundation of all others and without which mankind would be savages, scattered through the forest, with habitations but caverns, or hollow trees and subsisting upon the spontaneous productions of the earth. We believe it cannot be so. Then we give your influence to our Society by your presence at the Fair, and an exhibition of a portion of your stock, crops, or the production of your ingenuity as an artisan, and if you are not so already, by becoming a member of the Society. The presence of the ladies is earnestly requested, with specimens of their manufactures.

The following is a list of Premiums recommended by the Standing Committees and offered by the Trustees, and is for the convenience of members and others, now republished.

Agreeably to vote of the Society at its last annual meeting the fair was to be held two days, on the last of which was to be a Ploughing Match, Premiums for which the Trustees were authorized to offer, and which will be offered at their next exhibition.

SEARS GENUINE VEGETABLE PULMONARY SALAMIC SYRUP
LIVERWORT.
FOR Cure of Consumption, Coughs and Colds.
More than 75,000 Bottles of this very valuable Medicine has been sold, (principally in the State of Maine), since it was first offered to the public by the original inventor and proprietor, J. B. Sears, a few years since.

It is undoubtedly superior to any other article offered to the public; and it seldom fails in giving relief where it is taken in due season.
Although the superior virtues of this medicine are well known, and its qualities highly approved by many of the most respectable of the Medical Faculty, the following certificates are added for the satisfaction of those who may be afflicted with these diseases for which it is designed, several others may be seen on the bill of directions accompanying each bottle.

The undersigned takes pleasure in mentioning the prompt and essential relief which he experienced in a severe attack of the lungs in January last, from the use of the Vegetable Pulmonary Balsamic Syrup of Liverwort; and cheerfully testifies that in his opinion, it is a most beneficial medicine in consumptive complaints, violent colds, or settled cough, and earnestly recommends this medicine to all who are suffering under afflictions of this kind.
Thomaston, Feb. 16, 1831, PHILIP ULMER, Physician of Dr. Goodwin, an experienced Physician of Thomaston.

I do hereby certify, that I have this day examined the composition of a Medicine prepared by John B. Sears of this town, which he calls Vegetable Pulmonary Balsamic Syrup of Liverwort, for the cure of Consumption, Coughs, Colds, &c. and in my opinion it is superior to any Cough Drops that has come within my knowledge.
JACOB GOODWIN.
Thomaston, April 2, 1831.

The undersigned having purchased the original receipt for this Syrup, has made arrangements to have Agents in the principal towns in New England supplied with it. Purchasers will be careful that the bill of directions are signed by H. Fuller or S. Page, and the name of the writer stamped in the seal, and my own name written on the outside label.
T. B. MERRICK, Hallowell.

To whom order may be directed. It is also for sale by the gross, dozen or single bottle, by the following Druggists in Bangor: viz. GEO. W. HOLDEN, WHITTIER & GUILD, W. MANN, and J. W. MARDEN, at East Thomaston by R. S. Blaisdell, in Boston by W. C. Stimpson & Co. Pratt & King and Maynard & Noyes, and by single bottle at some store in most all the towns in Maine. wlv j25

HARRISON'S PERISTALTIC LOZENGES;
AN APPROVED REMEDY FOR CONSTIPATION AND DEPRESSION.
THIS medicine is not put forth as a universal nostrum, calculated to cure all the diseases incident to humanity, but rather as a means of preventing them. It may safely be stated that nine tenths of the most serious maladies arise from an unhealthy action of the stomach and bowels or liver, inducing as a natural consequence, indigestion and its results; such as head ache, acidity of the stomach, heart burn, flatulency, nausea, loss of spirits, jaundice and a whole catalogue of other complaints, which may be entirely removed by a timely and persevering use of this remedy.

The most cogent objection to Aperients in general is, that containing some drastic purgative, they leave, after their operation has ceased, a torpor of the stomach and bowels, producing consequences which their administration was intended to correct. Such effects will not follow the use of these Lozenges.

TO FEMALES IN DELICATE HEALTH.
The Peristaltic Lozenges are strongly recommended to the notice of every Lady, having obtained the sanction and approbation of several eminent gentlemen of the Medical Profession, as a safe and valuable medicine in removing obstructions and relieving all other inconveniences to which the female frame is liable, especially those which arise at an early period of life, from want of exercise and general debility of the system. They create an appetite, correct indigestion, remove giddiness and nervous head ache, and are eminently useful in windy disorders, pains in the stomach, shortness of breath and palpitation of the heart. Being perfectly innocent, they can be taken at any time and under any circumstances. The most delicate female, when an aperient is required, may have recourse to them, and they will act as a preventive against those nervous and hysterical affections which so frequently arise from continued constipation.

TO SEAFARING PEOPLE AND TRAVELLERS GENERALLY.
To individuals travelling, more particularly seafaring persons, when from change of habit or climate, the liver and bowels become deranged, costiveness follows as an invariable result, these Lozenges will prove invaluable. One individual writes, "I consider myself cured of costiveness, to which was always subject the moment I left the land, solely by the use of your medicine." The proprietor is continually receiving orders from his seafaring friends for the Lozenges. When they are to be carried to sea, they ought always to be put into the box in which they are packed and kept out of sight. In this way they may be kept good for any length of time.

The proprietor offers them as a cure for nervous head ache and general neuralgic affections. Very remarkable cures might be published if thought necessary.

Mr. Milhan, the agent in New York, writes, "I think it no longer necessary to advertise to the extent, as heretofore, the Lozenges are now well known. I am daily receiving the most satisfactory accounts of them, and I shall always recommend them to my customers."

The very questionable reputation which a medicine derives from the fashionable practice of publishing a long list of certificates, from persons whom nobody knows, has induced the proprietor to forego the opportunity of offering to the public the many commendations which he is daily receiving of these Lozenges, trusting rather to their own merits, which will be apparent to all on trial, and the respectability of his numerous agents.

These Lozenges have been in use for two years, the general approbation they have met with, from our first families, establishes their merits and makes further remarks unnecessary. They are packed in boxes which may be carried in the pocket and sold at fifty cents per box.

For sale in Bangor, by George W. Holden and Whittier & Guild, Esq. No. 3 Wall Street, Hallowell, Samuel Adams and E. Scammon, Augusta, Tappan & Ladd, Gardiner, A. T. Perkins, Portland, Joshua Durgin and Artemas Carter.

At the same place as the above, may be had HARRISON'S PILE REMEDY, Warranted as specific in all cases.

Hemorrhoids, or the Piles are occasioned by habitual costiveness, plethoria, hard riding on horseback and not unfrequently by the use of aloe purgatives. The popular nostrum known as "Vegetable Pills," "Universal Pills" and the like, are highly injurious when taken for a long time, being composed chiefly of aloe, which ought never to be taken by persons subject to Piles.

This complaint is not necessarily and of itself, immediately dangerous; in fact, in some instances it may be considered as a salutary evacuation, especially in plethoric or full blooded persons; but when suffered to remain long, it is the cause of many serious and even hazardous diseases.

The remedy now offered to the public, is prepared by the undersigned, from the recipe of a highly eminent practitioner in a neighboring city, and from the numerous cases absolutely cured by the use of it, he feels warranted in offering it as a specific.

It is put up in packages at fifty cents, with full directions for use, accompanied by a plain treatise on the disease. Prepared and for sale by
J. S. HARRISON, 256 Essex St. Salem.

VALUABLE CERTIFICATES.
EVANS' CAMOMILE AND APERIENT PILLS.
THE DIFFERENCE.
It cannot be denied that whilst many medicines which are recommended to the public, have not even the negative merit of harmlessness, there are others which it would be great injustice indeed and suicidal prejudice to involve untold, in a common condemnation. And when a medicine comes endorsed with all the great names that have adorned the annals of the medical profession, and warranted by the seal and signature of long and uniform success, its proprietor makes no unreasonable demand upon the public confidence, when he claims for it a superior consideration.

The Camomile Preparation by Dr. Wm. Evans is undoubtedly entitled to this enviable distinction, for whilst no medical practitioner in existence condemns it, every medical practitioner that is acquainted with it, freely acknowledges its pre-eminent virtues, and that the latter should do so in opposition to their personal interests, must be attributed either to their candor and love of truth, or to their unwillingness to fly in the face of all observation, and the testimony of thousands.

Dr. W. Evans does not pretend that his Camomile Tonic Pills will cure all diseases. He frankly and conscientiously admits that they will not. He lays no claim to the discovery of the "Philosopher's Stone," and wishes nobody to believe that he sells the "Elixir of Life," but he does say, and he does believe, and he can prove, that in debility and impaired constitution; in Nervous diseases of all kinds, in weakness of the digestive organs, in incipient consumptions, whether of the lungs or the liver, in the dreadful debility occasioned by the use of purgatives; in palsy, rheumatism, (more especially in the sickness incident to mothers, and to females of relaxed nerves; in every case of delirium tremens, or that disease which is brought on by intemperance, in the wretched horrors of body and mind which arise from occasional intemperance; loss of appetite, languor, melancholy, pains in the head, limbs, or side; in corrupt, sallow, and uncomely complexion caused by the bad state of the fluids in all these cases, and in others mentioned in the bills of directions given with these medicines, he does say, that the Camomile Tonic Pills, interchanged occasionally with his Aperient Family Pills, (the best known) which are sold with them, will effect immediate relief, and if used for a fair period of trial a perfect cure. This much is placed beyond a doubt by daily testimony which would be given on oath, and for this much Dr. W. Evans can conscientiously receive confidence. He therefore need only add that his Camomile Tonic Pills, together with his excellent Family Aperient Pills, can be obtained wholesale or retail at No. 7, Division Street near Chatham square, N. York, and his authorized agents in town and country.

Other and more conclusive demonstrations of the efficacy of Dr. Evans' Camomile Preparation and Aperient Medicines, are submitted by the following important and extraordinary cures effected by their highly medicinal qualities, all of which may be seen at Dr. Wm. Evans' Medical Office, No. 7, Division Street. One of two of these he herewith respectfully gives to a discriminating public.

Dr. Wm. Evans Sir, be pleased to receive the thanks of one who has been a great sufferer for several years, for the great benefit she has received from the virtues of your inestimable Camomile Pills. She has suffered with pain and distress in the head, a lightness across the head, a lightness across the stomach, shortness of breath, and palpitation of the heart's exercise would almost overcome her; but since using your Camomile Tonic Pills, her complaints are removed, she is able to exercise without fatigue and she is happy to say, can enjoy life comfortably again.

Newark, July 18, 1836 Dear Sir, for four years I have been so unwell that I was unable to attend to my business, and for the last 4 or 5 months was confined in my room, my complaints were rheumatism, pains in my stomach, indigestion and loss of appetite, with continued pain and dizziness in my head; I used different kinds of medicines without effect, until I commenced taking your invaluable Camomile and Aperient Pills; their beneficial effects upon me astonish all who knew my situation. In a few days I shall be at your office to express my gratitude to you in person. In the mean time I subscribe myself your most obedient servant.
B. S. JARVIS, 13 Centre St.

Dr. Wm. Evans.
Extract of a letter from Jonas Snyder, Postmaster, Knoxville, Pa. to Dr. Wm. Evans. Among several cases of an elderly lady who had been 25 years afflicted with nervous hypochondria, debility, &c. that for the last 3 years she constantly received medical aid from a respectable physician, but the pressure and pain on her head and breast, and especially in her left side, rendered her unable to attend to long intervals with weakness in her head and on her mind keeping her discouraged to undertake any thing. In May she commenced using Dr. W. Evans' Camomile and Family Aperient Pills, according to the directions accompanying them. A reaction took place; the pain and pressure in her body was removed, her mind became clear and strong, her spirits perfectly good, and up to this time in all respects restored to health, which for the last 10 years she has not enjoyed.

—Sept. 2, 1836—
JONAS SNYDER.
On Low Spirits. Low spirits is a certain state of the mind, accompanied by indigestion, wherein the greatest evils are apprehended upon the slightest grounds, and the worst consequences imagined. Ancient writers supposed this disease to be confined to those particular regions of the abdomen technically called hypochondria, which are situated on the right or left side of that cavity, whence comes the name hypochondria.

Symptoms. The common corporeal symptoms are flatulency in the stomach, acid eructations, costiveness, spasmodic pains, acidities, dimness of sight, palpitations, and often an utter inability of fixing the attention upon any subject of importance, or engaging in any thing that demands vigor or courage. Also languidness; the mind becomes irritable, thoughtful, desponding, melancholy and dejected, accompanied with a total derangement of the nervous system. The mental feelings and peculiar train of ideas that haunt the imagination and overwhelm the judgment, exhibit infinite diversity. The wisest and best of men are as open to this affliction as the weakest.

Causes. A sedentary life of any kind, especially severe study, protracted to a late hour in the night, and rarely relieved by social intercourse, or exercise, a dissolute habit, great excess in eating and drinking, the immoderate use of mercury, violent purgatives, the suppression of some habitual discharge, or long continued eruption; relaxation or debility of one or more important organs within the abdomen, is frequent cause.

Treatment. The principal objects of treatment are, to remove indigestion, to strengthen the body, and to cheer the spirits, which may be promoted by exercise, early hours, regular meals and pleasant conversation. The bowels (if costive) being carefully regulated by the occasional use of a mild aperient. We know nothing better calculated to obtain this end, than Dr. Wm. Evans' Aperient Pills—being mild and certain in their operation. The bowels being once cleansed, his inestimable Camomile Pills, (which are tonic, anodyne, & anti-spasmodic) are an infallible remedy, & without dispute have proved a great blessing to the numerous public.

Some physicians have recommended a free use of mercury but it should not be resorted to as in many cases it will greatly aggravate symptoms.

B. BRANDRETH, M. D.
PUBLIC OPINION. Public opinion is perhaps the only unerring guide from whose decision there is no appeal, and was there ever such a manifestation of its approval, as there is with Brandreth's Vegetable Universal Pills? Scarcely has this medicine worn itself into vogue, in spite of envy, derision and scorn. Triumphant has been its progress to its present sphere of extensive usefulness. It has surmounted obstacles before which quackery sinks paralyzed, and has gained for itself a reputation which neither Physicians, nor Appearances, nor counterfeiting apothecaries can ever injure. These charlatans, nevertheless, do assail it with the malignant shafts of their despicable envy, and which rebounds upon themselves with a power, each day on the increase, until they themselves will be covered with the slime of their own manufacturing. They can no more injure the reputation of Brandreth's Pills than they can put their hand upon the sun.

Or with polluted fingers tarnish it? If to discover the cause and nature of disease—to make a medicine universal in its powers, and universal in its curative effects upon every kind of malady, proved by the cures performed upon thousands of persons, restored to the blessings of health—if to do these things be praiseworthy, then is Dr. Brandreth entitled to the praise of this and each succeeding generation. By the means he points out, chronic infirmities and premature death are prevented. What are the means? Simply Vegetable Universal Pills, and a real, an established cure can be effected.

John Dorr's County Agency being discontinued by mutual consent, Sub-Agents in Waldo, Penobscot, Hancock and Washington Counties, will hereafter receive their supplies from Mr. JOHN O. LANGLEY, Dr. Brandreth's duly authorized Travelling Agent, or from the New England Office.

STORKKEEPER'S SECURITY. All persons who are authorized to travel for Doctor Benjamin Brandreth have invariably the power of attorney from him proved before the Clerk of the County of New York. Without this is exhibited, touch, taste, nor handle.

STILL FURTHER. Dr. Brandreth's Travellers never require the money in advance. Dr. B's terms being: Medicine to be paid for when sold.

Inquire whether the power of attorney was seen when the Pills were left, &c.
All Pills having Wm. Brandreth on the label, George Hodgkinson on the edge, are counterfeits, made to deceive the Public and evade the law at the same time.

These, and indeed ALL counterfeit Pills, if used according to the direction which accompany my Pills, are calculated to destroy life. They are made by men having no standing or respectability, without habitation or name, perfectly careless of consequences, provided money is obtained. Extract from Dr. B's address to citizens of N. Y.:

And be careful to remember that I have never authorized any Doctor, Druggist, Apothecary or Pedlar in the U. S. to sell my pills. These contemptible persons universally sell counterfeits, and that all Tradesmen who are made agents, have each of them a copper plate certificate of agency, signed in writing with a pen by me; and which certificate requires renewal every twelve months, if being no guarantee for more than one year from date observe the date is not written, it is engaged.
